YOU WILL NOTICE

His art of flirting
That walk
Her greetings
That diamond
Her dimpled smile
Those high notes
Her neatness
His dark looks
Her nice personality
She's usually with Glenn
His stoutness
That red face
Her boy troubles
His independent ways
He's always with Bob
His manly voice
Her blushing ability
His quiet disposition
Those bright remarks
Her musical ability
Wasting gas
Studiousness
Her nice smile
Her helpfulness
That wavy hair
His hot temper
That blond butch
His talking ability
Her poodle cut
His manly ways
Her friendliness

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Not disagreeing with someone
Living on a farm
Being lazy
Losing her temper
Being unpopular
Singing bass
Being a magpie
With blond hair
Disliking to skate
Without her smile
Being ambitious
Doing the charleston
Not being devilish
Without his manners
Not going to Gibsonburg
Playing the clarinet
Being rowdy
Weighing 200 pounds
Being anything but a farmer
Chewing bubble gum
Without a joke
Not helping out
Not having a boyfriend
With natural curly hair
Being 6 feet tall
Having perfect attendance
Going steady with a girl
With his hair messed up
With a pony-tail
Being girl-crazy
With pigtaails

ANNUAL STAFF

Jo Ann Ryder, Business Manager; Lois Connell, Feature Editor; Claudette Baublitz and Gail Garey, Co-Editors; Paula Pollard, Music Editor; Pete Sworden, Sports Editor; Jack Harrison, Photographer.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Gail Garey, Nancy Rogers, Jack Harrison, Lois Connell, Pete Sworden.

SENIOR WILL

We, the graduating class of 1954, being of sound mind and able body, do hereby publish and declare this to be our last will and testament subject to change only by due cause of law.

Jointly, we will to the juniors our dignity, places of high esteem, and the general praise we receive. It is for them to realize that they can acquire the aforesaid only if they use the seniors as their models.

- First I, Jack Harrison, will my shoe size (14) to Jan Davies.
Of course I realize he can never fill them.
- Second I, Pete Sworden, will my blond hair to Phyllis Clements with the advice not to dye hers blonde.
- Third I, Gail Garey, will my smile to Glenn Elder if he will promise to use it only for me.
- Fourth I, Lois Connell, will my ability to get a steady guy to Nancy Stiger. Just leave mine alone.
- Fifth I, Nancy Rogers, will my good grades to Nancy Sherman, provided you work hard for them.
- Sixth I, Virgil Allen, will my devilish grin to Arvin Curliss.
It seems Woody already has one though.
- Seventh I, Claudette Baublitz, will my worry habits to Janet Gaskalla. They help once in a while.
- Eighth I, Evelyn Blasius, will my diamond to Janet Nonnemaker with the advice to wait awhile.
- Ninth I, Phyllis Eckert, will my head majorette uniform to Jim Long. It'll look nice on him.
- Tenth I, Janice Errett, will my soprano voice to Ronald Walters to help him reach the high notes.
- Eleventh I, Imogene Evans, will my neatness to Barbara Johnston and Jim Hummel. Keep up the good job.
- Twelfth I, Ned Fairbanks, will my dark good looks to Alvon Whitman. They're guaranteed to catch a girl.
- Thirteenth I, Martha Fowler, will my ever-ready "Hi" to Margaret Stein. It makes friends.
- Fourteenth I, Eugene George, will my FFA jacket to Joyce Rogers if she promises to always keep it clean.
- Fifteenth I, Joan Hiser, will my boyfriends to Lois Parsons and Sylvia Bridgeman. This way you'll always have a date.
- Sixteenth I, Frank Long, will my datebook to Larry Sawyer and Rex Stump with the warning that the girls are all mine.
- Seventeenth I, Don Loucks, will my liking for mechanical things to Jim Ruble. This kind of knowledge is always helpful.
- Eighteenth I, Charles Nietz, will all my music awards to Henry Schroeder. You can always show them off.
- Nineteenth I, Corinne O'Connell, will my colorful blush to John Pearce. He could use it.
- Twentieth I, Glenn Ohler, will my quietness to Vernon Garner and Eloise Seem to help them study.
- Twenty-first I, Lester Pierce, will my drawl to Don Yambert to help him sing his hillbilly songs.

SENIOR WILL

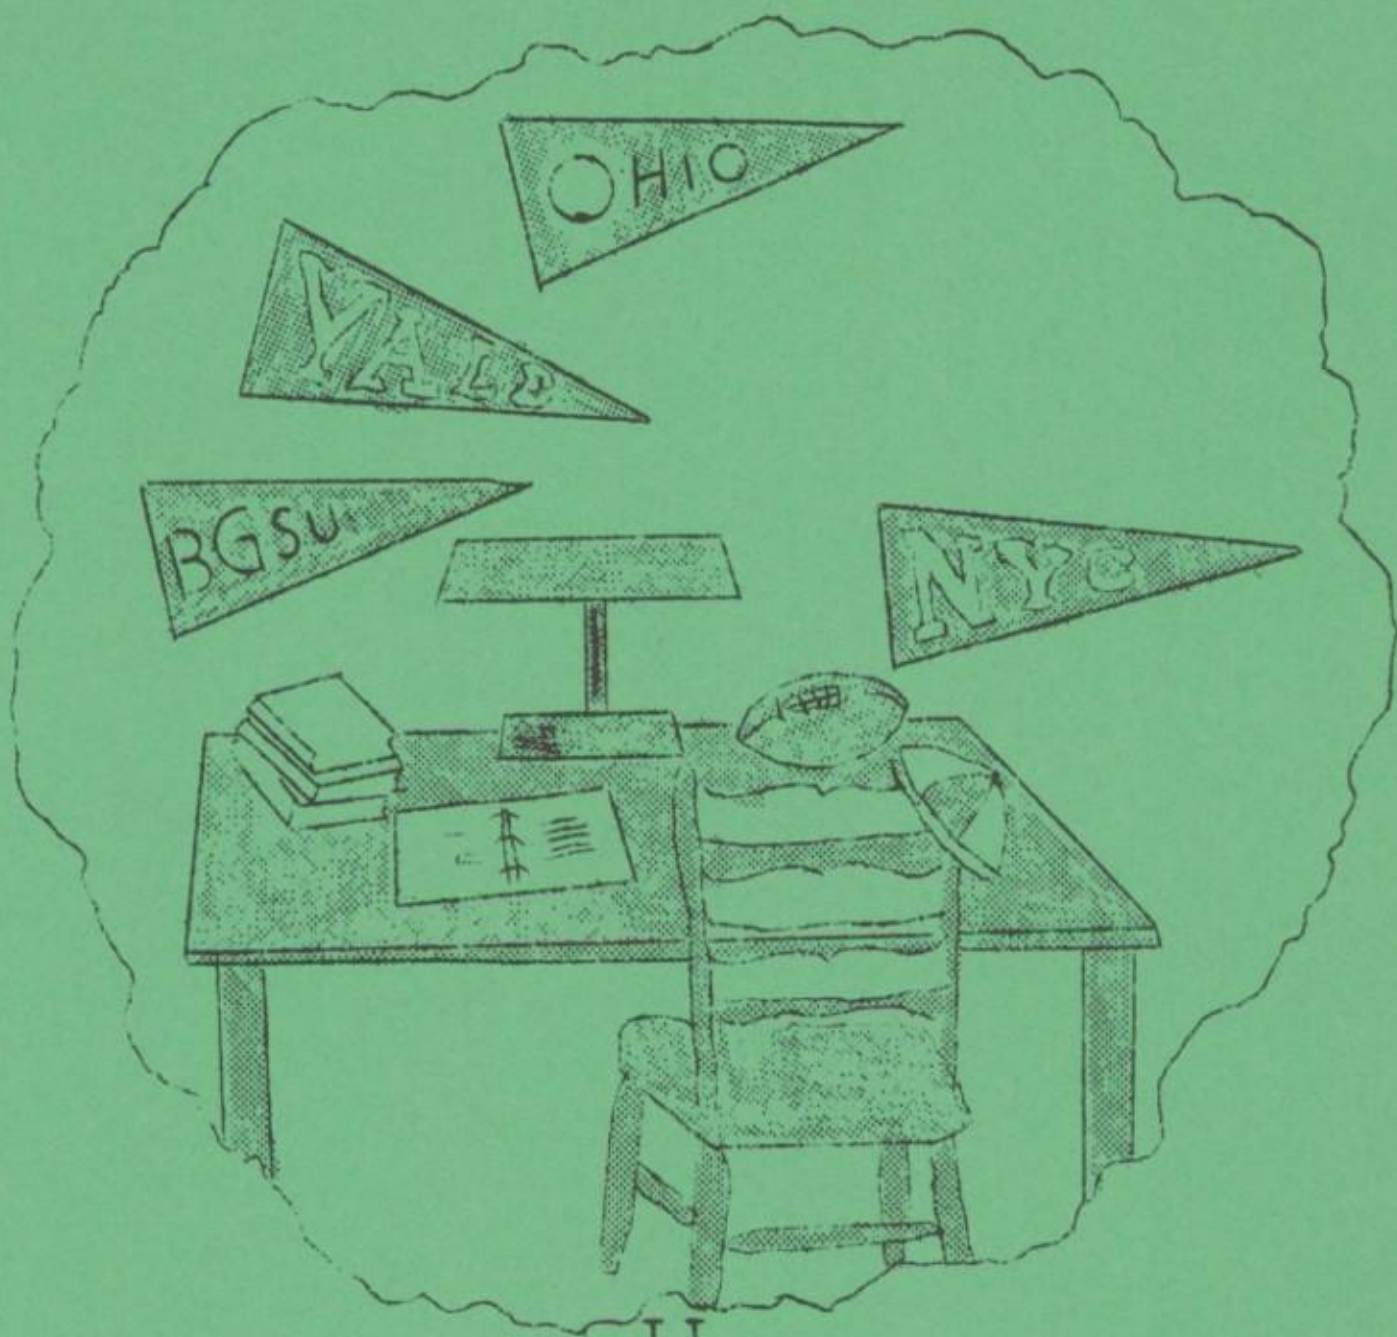

- Twenty-second I, Paula Pollard, will my change of moods to Larry Lewis. They keep you from getting in a rut.
- Twenty-third I, Ray Riffe, will my corny jokes to Max Graber. Here, catch them before they die.
- Twenty-fourth I, JoAnn Ryder, will my cheerleader position to Shirley St.Clair. It'll pep you up.
- Twenty-fifth I, Lena St.Clair, will my 8-ball to Tom Stannard so he'll always have the right answers.
- Twenty-sixth I, Robert Saam, will my way with women to Bill Connell and Jim Tyson. They seem to have their own methods though.
- Twenty-seventh I, Keith Swartz, will my temper to Nancy Shaw. It pays to hold it in check.
- Twenty-eighth I, John Tahy, will my "gift of gab" to Omer Swartz and Keith Ickes provided they use it only outside school.
- Twenty-ninth I, Barbara Tyson, will my poodle hair cut to Sue Hemminger if she'll promise not to braid it.
- Thirtieth I, Ronald Tyson, will my position in football to Bob Geren. Expect to get knocked around some.
- Thirty-first I, Carolyn Weller, will my ability to make people like me to Julie Long. It is especially useful when getting to know kids from other schools.

The M. L. H. S. marching band started off the season by marching at the opening of the underpass in Fostoria. They also performed many clever routines at each home football game and also at two games away from home.

At Christmas time the chorus showed up in fine style. The eighty-five voice choir gave a thirty minute broadcast over W F O B. They also gave a Christmas program at the high school.

The band played at the January P. T. A. meeting, and the choir sang at the April P. T. A. meeting.

Several members of both the band and choir did solo and ensemble work at the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Bowling Green State University in March. They did very well and came back with very good ratings.

On March 25 the annual Wood County Music Festival was held at Bowling Green State University. Several members of both the choir and the band participated in the mass choirs and band.

The annual high school operetta was presented in April. It was "Ask the Professor" and was given by the high school choir.

The Spring Concert was held on Sunday afternoon at the high school. Both the band and choir participated.

The choir rendered several numbers at the Baccalaureate service.

The M. L. H. S. students can be very proud of their fine music department and its very capable director, Mrs. Sockrider.

TRAFFIC INCREASE IN BRADNER AND WAYNE

Beware! Traffic has increased around Wayne and Bradner. In case you're wondering why, the first drivers ed. class has completed the course.

Several students completed six hours of actual driving and classroom work at the end of the first semester.

State Patrolman J. N. Hendrickson on Friday, January 22, issued permits used by the students to apply for licenses. Each permit has to be taken to the license bureau and presented; the license is then sent to the student.

Each student completing the course was presented a Drivers Education and Training Certificate at the pep meeting held last Friday.

SENIORS CONTACT SPEAKERS

Prospective speakers for the commencement address are being contacted.

From a list of approximately twenty persons, a committee composed of the senior class officers chose eight to be written.

Those that have May 25 as an open date will be seriously considered; one will be selected.

PJA Recognizes Eight

The recognition of eight people who have rendered 20 years or more of service for the education of American children was the highlight of the P.T.A. meeting held January 10.

Certificates were presented to Miss Helle, Miss Spackey, Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Goetz, and Mrs. Smith who have taught 20 years or more. Mr. George McCormick, custodian for 26 years and Mr. Millard Jones,
